BRODERIE

Bonheur de Jour French General

French General's new collection of embroidery samplers, Bonheur de Jour Broderie, includes four different designs which can be sold as one panel. Printed on a blend of cotton and linen (Mochi Linen), these samplers are designed with the beginner stitcher in mind - but the designs appeal to the experienced stitcher as well. Using your favorite floss, stitch these samplers in your preferred palette. Use a variety of embroidery stitches, including: the back stitch, the stem stitch, the chain stitch and French knots to embellish and fill in the samplers.

These samplers can be made into pillow covers, stitching bags or framed with fabric using a fat quarter so you can hang on the wall. For more embroidery inspiration, please visit www.frenchgeneral.com
