

M A R I G O L D

BY ANEELA HOEY

Marigold brings together a selection of designs with the natural world as a common thread. Whether influenced directly through the flowers in my garden or via the medium of a nature documentary, this collection captures the beauty, spontaneity, form and organic feel of the living world. I chose a color palette heavily influenced by late summer flora to create rich and colorful prints. Perfect for bringing some outdoor loveliness inside to enjoy. I hope you have fun creating with these fabrics for all your projects!
